?What do we know already

You are in your house.

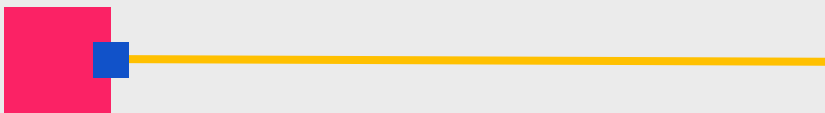

You know the parts of your body.

But do you know the rooms of your house?

Where do you sleep?

Where do you eat?

Where do you wash your hands?

?What do we know already

You are in your house

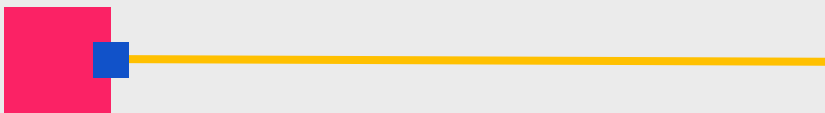

You know the parts of your body

But do you know the rooms of your house?

Where do you sleep? In the bedroom.

Where do you eat? In the dining room.

Where do you wash your hands? In the bathroom/kitchen.

Now we get down to learning

Every house is homely

Every house is neat

If you have at least one room

Your house is so complete

If you have more than one

That is good to hear

The bedroom is where you sleep

The bathroom should be near

Now we get down to learning

The dining room is where we eat

In living rooms you relax

In the shower, you may get wet

In the office just send your fax

Hey! Don't forget the kitchen

That's where you make the food

This is the last room of our chant

So now we're in the mood WOO HOO
