

ד"ר תרצה לוי

Dr. Lewin serves for the past 5 years Senior lecturer for early childhood education at Kaye College and Head for Head of the First year of Education Program.

A lecturer specializing in Literacy and Early childhood education and children's sociodramatic play and "learning from children about children".

For past 3 years, Dr. Lewin organized, coordinates and took part in a "Community of learning" program where early childhood faculty members and students study together. Arab and Jewish students engage in joint research regarding different aspects of authentic dialogue discourse between educators and preschoolers in order to improve their interactions with children.