

Erin Gruwell is a renowned teacher and activist and the creator of the Freedom Writer Method, a progressive teaching philosophy and curriculum designed to achieve excellence from all students.

As a young teacher in a tough California high school, Gruwell devised innovative methods to inspire her students to tell their stories and succeed.

The Freedom Writers Diary is a New York Times bestseller and Erin Gruwell's story is the subject of a documentary feature and a Hollywood film.

Learn about: "Women Educators Build Bridges for Peace", a partnership between the US Embassy, the Ministry of Education and CET

The Freedom Writer Method

An Evening with Erin Gruwell

Wednesday, December 2, 2015,
5:45 PM – 7:30 PM

The Center for Educational Technology
Klausner 16, Ramat Aviv, Tel Aviv

The talk will be in English

For further information, please contact Irit Vachter

RSVP Requested

Embassy of the United States

Ministry of Education

CET • THE CENTER FOR EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY