The Convention on the Rights of the Child: Why It is Time to Ratify

The Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) is the most comprehensive and ratified international human rights treaty.

How can the CRC impact the lives of children and families in the U.S.?

On June 1-2, 2009, interactive panel discussions from leading experts will explore the answers to that question in the context of the following topics:

- Needs, Rights, and the Human Family
- Supportive Environments for Children
- Health
- Education
- Special Protection Measures
- Participation

Additional details will be posted on the following web page:
