Procedure for Appeals Against Decisions of the Department for Evaluation of Foreign Academic Degrees (Bachelor. and Master)

1. An appeal may be submitted against a decision of the Department rejecting an application for evaluation of a foreign Bachelor's or Master's degree within 45 days from the date of the decision
2. The appeal is to be submitted via the online system.
3. The appeal must include a letter detailing all the reasons for the appeal, along with any supporting documents, if available.
4. The decision on the appeal will be made by the Director of the Department for Evaluation of Foreign Academic Degrees (hereinafter: "the Director") within 90 days from the date of submission.
5. If additional time is required to reach a decision, the appellant will be notified. In general, the appeal decision will be rendered within an additional 90 days, unless circumstances necessitate a longer period.
6. If the appellant is required to submit additional documents, the submission must be completed within 30 days.
7. This procedure will take effect on March 19, 2025.
8. Decisions issued up to two years prior to March 19, 2025, will be considered as if they were issued on the date of publication of this procedure for the purpose of appeal submission. The Department will not consider appeals against decisions made before this date.
9. The decision of the Director is final. However, the appellant may file an appeal against this decision with the Labor Court.
