A theater festival is being held in Haifa this week. Pam Green is an eighth grade pupil at the Grant School in Haifa. She is the star of one of the plays in the Festival.

Interviewer: Pam, can you tell us what the play is about?

Pam: Yes. The play is about a girl who is lost in a strange town. The girl is extremely frightened because it is getting dark, but she tries to stay calm in order to think clearly.

Interviewer: Does she find her way home?

Pam: I can't tell you that. But you can come and see the play for yourself. I'm sure you'll enjoy it.

Interviewer: Pam, do you have more friends now that you are famous?

Pam: Thanks for saying so, but I don't think I am famous yet. Anyway, I have the same number of friends as I did before. I don't think my friends have changed the way they act towards me. I hope I have not changed either.

Interviewer: Do you want to be an actress when you grow up, Pam?

Pam: I haven't decided yet. An actor has to be away from home a lot. I'm not sure that I want that kind of life.

Interviewer: Thank you very much, Pam Green.

Pam: You're welcome.
