On Rosh Chodesh Adar, in my city, there are seven lonely
clowns.

The first clown is wearing a yellow hat and purple shoes.

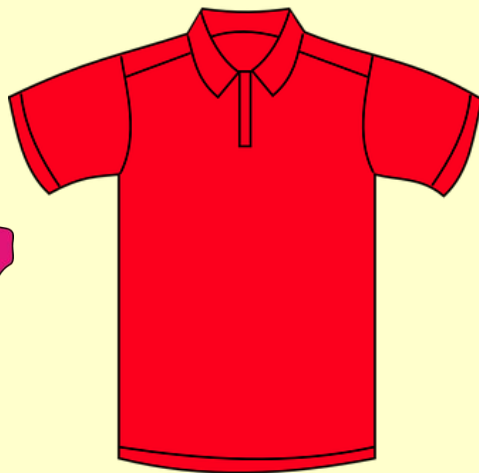

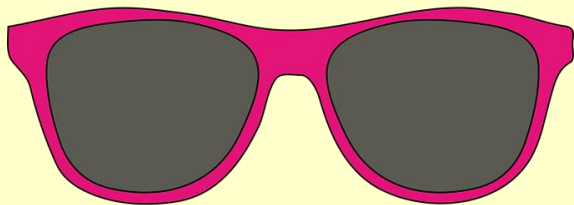

And the clown is very lonely!

The second clown is wearing pink glasses and a red shirt.

And the clowns are very
lonely!

The third clown is wearing
green pants and blue socks.

And the clowns are very
lonely!

The fourth clown is wearing
orange boots and a brown
coat.

And the clowns are very
lonely!

The fifth clown is wearing a blue sweater and light blue sandals.

And the clowns are very
lonely!

The sixth clown is wearing a green skirt and a light purple
scarf.

And the clowns are very
lonely!

The seventh clown is wearing a white vest and has a green umbrella.

This clown has one karaoke set, two microphones, three games, four bottles of drink, five bags of chips, six cakes, and seven balloons. And the clown is having a Purim party.

On Purim, the six clowns come to the party.

Now, they are not lonely clowns
and they are not sad clowns anymore. They are happy, funny
clowns.

And the clowns are very

HAPPY!!!

Today is Purim and they are having a Purim party!
