

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS - EXEMPLARS*

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

My Picture

The picture I chose describes a violent demonstration in Sweden, in the last weekend (14-16 May).

The demonstrators protest against the capitalism and against U.S.A. in Sweden, where there is the summit of the West-World leaders, that symbolize the capitalism.

The high tense between the demonstrators that cause a lot of mess, and between the police forces, is expressed in the picture.

The police-men are struggling with the violent demonstrators, wear a heavy helmet, and use clubs and dogs in order to stop the wild demonstrators dressed in black.

My reasons for choosing the picture

I chose this picture, because it expresses well the main problem that society has today - violence. This picture is very meaningful for the teenage of today. The difficult scenes of the demonstration in Sweden, shock us again and cause us to think more seriously about violence, and how to stop the disease, in order that we won't see again scenes like this picture, and we'll only experience joy and happiness. We, the youth of today, are the next generation, and the future of the world is in our hands.

*Based on the original version of the task and rubric which were subsequently altered.

Content	Discourse & Organization	Vocabulary	Language Usage & Convention
5	5	5	5

A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

My Picture

My picture is the poster of the movie "Harry Potter & the Sorcerer's Stone," and it is showing a owl bringing a letter to Mrs. M. Potter, in the night.

My reasons for choosing the picture

I chose this picture because I am practically crazy about Harry Potter, I have read every book in the series ever! and I can recite parts from the books and tell you the stories by heart.

Content	Discourse & Organization	Vocabulary	Language Usage & Convention
2	2	1	1

