LEISURE TIME - GUIDE

* Domain:

Access to information

♦ Benchmark:

Understand the conventions of different text types (a questionnaire) and use this knowledge as needed

* Description:

Students are required to fill in a questionnaire from an Internet teen magazine about what they do in their free time, and then compare it to a questionnaire submitted by a teenager from Australia.

◆ Rationale for choice of topic:

Filling out a questionnaire is an authentic task. And it is usually fun to do. Although reading questionnaires and drawing conclusions from them is not a task undertaken on a daily basis, it is important to understand how it is done and how information is collected. Moreover, students are often required to carry out independent research wherein they are likely to collect information through the use of written questionnaires.

Suggestions for implementation (prior to and/or during):

A motivating activity to start out is to write 3-4 statements about teenagers on the board. Then ask the students on what the statements are based. For example, teenagers prefer visiting friends to sitting in coffee shops; teenagers prefer watching TV to talking with friends. Discuss how we find out about student preferences, likes and dislikes, habits and beliefs.

◆ Suggested time allotment:

Double lesson

Prerequisites:

- Ability to follow instructions
- · Familiarity with questionnaires
- · Ability to compare and contrast

LEISURE TIME - TASK

In this task you will be asked to fill in a questionnaire and then compare your responses to those of an Australian teenager:

The Internet teenage magazine, Global Teens, is carrying out a global survey of teenagers' leisure time activities. Teenagers from around the world are asked to fill in the magazine's questionnaire. John Shelby, an Australian teenager, submitted his questionnaire and it was published on the Internet. You have been asked to compare your responses to John Shelby's responses.

- 1. Fill in the questionnaire "My Leisure Time".
- 2. Read John Shelby's questionnaire and compare your responses with his responses.
- 3. Write a summary of your comparison.

Note:

Read the checklist before you start working and fill it in when you finish.
